

Questions

1. Why is a chatbot with various data about the Star Wars universe important to create?
2. Is the non-removal of the NA's unnecessary?
3. Why is the machine learning technique known as a chatbot implemented over possibly another machine learning technique that is better fitted for the Star Wars data?
4. Should an API be employed over a chatbot for the Star Wars data?
5. Do fans or potential fans need to know about the various planets in the Star Wars universe?
6. Do fans or potential fans need to know about the various species in the Star Wars universe?
7. Do fans or potential fans need to know about the various starships in the Star Wars universe?
8. Do fans or potential fans need to know about the various vehicles in the Star Wars universe?
9. Is knowing just the various characters enough for fans or potential fans for the Star Wars universe?
10. Could this chatbot be extended to other data from various popular works?